

Handwriting Without Tears

3rd Grade—Cursive Handwriting

	Day 1	Day 3	Notes
Week 1	1–7	8–9	Note to Mom or Dad: This year your children will learn to write in cursive. Before you begin, please read the introductory notes on pages 4, 6 & 7. Remind yourself of how to check each assignment. Check your children's handedness and pencil grip. On page 5, have your children work through the entire page in one sitting. We schedule two letters a week. Once we finish learning the letters in week 16, please have your children do all their dictation work and creative writing in cursive. After your children have learned the letters, we will have two weeks of practice and then slow the pace down to one page in the handwriting book per week. The majority of your children's practice will come from their personal writing.
